

Participatory workshop session

Local Solutions for a Global Issue: Reimagining Funding Streams for Gender-Based Violence in Latin America

Meet and join frontline Latin American feminists for a live discussion. They will share how they experience the power imbalance between donors and academics, the effects of current research and funding mechanisms, and how they are challenging it.

We want to bring up concrete ideas to enhance the current research and funding systems in a horizontal and feminist way.

Speakers:

Lydia Cordero, Mexico

Sandra Isaza, Colombia

Enrica Duncan, Brazil

Anya Victoria, regional

Moderator: Laura Aragón

For more info, click here:

September 22, 1pm

Hotel Paradisus, Cancun Room: Menorca

RSVP by September 9: bit.ly/ReimaginingFunding

The meeting will be held in Spanish with English-Spanish interpretation.

Limited space to ensure participants can meaningfully learn and contribute.

We are convening a small group of donors, activists, and academics to enable active participation.

Contact us: Laura Aragón: Laragon@padf.org | +1-325-513-4118

Anya Victoria-Delgado: Avictoria@padf.org