

Combating Public Corruption in Colombia | CPCC

Colombia

Oct 2022 to Aug 2025

ABOUT THE PROJECT

This three-year project, funded by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs (INL), aims to enhance the quality and effectiveness of public corruption investigations, prosecutions, and adjudications in Colombia. In partnership with the American Bar Association Rule of Law Initiative (ABA-ROLI) and local experts, PADF is bolstering the capacity of Colombian justice sector actors to address complex public corruption cases. Through targeted technical assistance, mentorship, case analysis, and comprehensive training, PADF provides project beneficiaries with the tools needed to strengthen accountability and promote integrity within Colombia's justice system.

STRATEGIC GOALS

- Enhance the effectiveness and efficiency of Colombia's justice sector agencies in investigating, prosecuting, and adjudicating public corruption cases.
- Improve coordination among law enforcement, judiciary, and investigative bodies.
- Target corruption networks through training, tools, and institutional reforms for long-lasting impact.

OUR VISION FOR IMPACT

Increased Investigations, Prosecutions, and Convictions for Public Corruption.

Improved Public Trust and Accountability.

Enhanced Institutional Capacity and Inter-Agency Coordination.

KEY FACTS

Donor

U.S. Department of State:
Bureau of International
Narcotics and Law Enforcement
Affairs (INL)

Current Status

Open

Partners | Beneficiary Stakeholders

Colombian National Police, Colombian
Attorney General's Office, Supreme Court of Colombia.

CONTACT US

Kevin Mills
Director PJS
kmills@padf.org

David Alvarez Veloso
Deputy Director PJS
dalvarez@padf.org